SAN FRANCISCO MAN
PLACED UNDER ARREST

Parcels Post Clerk Has His Suspicion Aroused and Opens Package

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—Suspicious of a parcel post package, Postoffice Clerk Allen Strong today opened a parcel and discovered a box of candy containing morphine tablets.

Max Steinfeld, a clerk at the Belvedere Hotel, was later arrested by Postoffice Inspector John O'Connell, charged with attempting to send poison through the mails to his wife at Long Beach.

LONG BEACH, Oct. 28.—That the morphine tablets found in a box of candy mailed in San Francisco to Mrs. Max Steinfeld were medicine she had asked her husband to procure from Dr. J. Fife of San Francisco was the assertion today of Mrs. F. E. Pierce, Mrs. Steinfeld's mother.

She added that Steinfelds frequently sends his wife candy.

She said the woman recently had a letter from her husband explaining his recent arrest for having opium in his possession and that the charge against him had already been dismissed.

Mrs. Steinfelds is ill and came here for her health.

NEW SLOGAN TO BOOST
AMERICAN MADE GOODS

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—"Made in the United States of America" will hereafter be the American commercial slogan. It was substituted for the phrase, "Made in America," at a meeting today of business men and others interested in a campaign to popularize American-made goods.

The change was made to distinguish between the United States and other American nations having a South American trade with the United States which might be jeopardized by use of the United States slogan, which might prove distasteful to them.

LOS ANGELES LAUNCHES
NEW PLAN TO SAVE GIRLS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 28.—With the two-fold object of simplifying the control of wayward girls and of restoring them to their homes, a municipal confidential bureau for girls was established here today in quarters far removed from any possible connection with the police department and the usual detention homes. Under the supervision of "City Mother" Aletha Gilbert, former police woman, the bureau is given the aid of a board composed of society women, social rescue workers, and women inclined to philanthropic work. The bureau is an innovation in police work among girls, and police officials predict the rapid spread of the idea to other cities.

In other words, the state tax rates for the Pacific coast wet states are from two and one-half to three and one-half times as high as in dry Kansas.

$6,000,000 MINE FORTUNE BASIS WOMAN'S SUIT

Gets Order From Court for Adjudication of Grub-Stake
Litigation

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—Judgment enabling Mrs. Ella Heim of San Leandro to get an accounting of $6,000,000 worth of Alaskan mining property, the ownership of which is in dispute, was rendered today by Judge Trout.

Mrs. Heim is suing Jerry Wilson, his wife and the Wilson-Kimball Mining Company to establish a trust for the property. She claims she grubstaked the Wilsons for an Alaskan trip with the understanding that she was to receive one-half of the claims located.

She charges Wilson with discovering mining property worth millions and disposing of it without her knowledge.

U. S. REGISTRY OF FOREIGN-BUILT VESSELS

78 Ships Admitted Under Aug.
13 Act; Come in Since
Sept. 7

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Seventy-eight foreign-built vessels have been admitted to American registry under the act of August 13 of this year. They have a combined tonnage of 272,548 gross tons and add 50 per cent in efficiency to the American merchant marine trading with foreign countries.

Twenty-five of the new ships to come under American registry are owned by the United Fruit Company and ten by the United States Steel Corporation.

The new ship registry law did not go into effect until September 8, although it was passed by Congress nearly a month prior to that time and approved by the President August 18.

It is since September 7 that the seventy-eight ships have come under the American flag.

All of these ships except the Sacramento, formerly owned by the Hamburg Americanische Company, were American-owned before the European war broke out, but they flew foreign flags.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Contracts for $10,674,112 armor plate and steel for the new battleships California, Mississippi and Idaho were awarded yesterday by the Navy Department to the Bethlehem and Midvale Steel companies. Reductions in prices of materials resulted in a saving for the government of $754,542, as compared with the cost per ton of armor bought for the battleship Pennsylvania two years ago.

The Bethlehem company was awarded contracts for material for two vessels aggregating $7,122,708, and the Midvale company obtained the award for the other at $3,551,404.

JAPAN PLANS WARLIKE MOVE

Prepares to Place Army and Navy on Fighting Basis
Without Delay

REAL CAUSE OF STEP IS WRAPPED IN MYSTERY

Meager Dispatch From Orient
Hints at Possible Complication With China

TOKIO, Oct. 28.—Immediate expansion of army and navy, that Japan may be able to act quickly in the event of emergency, was urged by Premier Okuma at a meeting of party leaders today. It is expected the budget this year will provide the largest military fund in Japanese peace history.

The foregoing dispatch fails to explain in what way Japan may be called upon to act in any quick emergency. It also seemed unlikely that the censor would have permitted the transmission of any explanation if one had been offered.

The possibility has been recognized at Tokio of complications with China as a result of Japanese operations against the Germans on Shantung peninsula.

In addition, Japan might be asked to keep order in India and South Africa in the event of trouble there. It is also hinted that Japanese services might be asked in the event of Turkish participation in the present war.

Japanese statesmen have said several times since the war broke out that they had no intention of sending troops to Europe, but this, it is believed referred possibly to action on their own initiative, no definite announcement being made that they would refuse aid to their British allies in any field if asked.

$500,000 TEA SHIPMENT
RUSHED TO NEW YORK

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 28.—A half-million-dollar freight cargo is being rushed east on passenger schedule time by the Salt Lake. The shipment is made up of thirty-four cars of Japanese tea, and it is declared that more shipments are to follow as the result of the fear in New York that Japanese commerce might be held up by future developments in the European war.

2 Women Die of Shock of Mine Explosion

HERRIN, Ill., Oct. 28.—Only forty-seven persons perished in the gas explosion at the Franklin company's coal mine near Royaltown yesterday, according to announcement today by the company officials.

All the bodies of the victims have been recovered and the burial of the dead starts tomorrow. Many miners believed to have been entombed were brought to the surface and went directly home yesterday, failing to answer to roll call.

One is still missing but is believed to be alive.

It was learned this afternoon that two foreign women whose husbands were killed in the disaster died during the night of the shock. The fire was extinguished today and repair work will start immediately.

The inquest on the victims is being held this afternoon.

CHARGES LOBBY
TO PREVENT TAX ON
BEER AND WHISKY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The list of persons he believes should be called before the Senate Lobby Committee in connection with his charges that a lobby has been worked in the interests of liquor producers to prevent a tax on whisky and an increased levy on beer is nearing completion by Senator Norris of Nebraska. He made the charges in the Senate during the final discussion of the war revenue bill.

Senator Norris has already submitted a partial list to Chairman Overman of the committee.

Among those whom he suggests should be called are Royal E. Cabell, former Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and Theodore Bell of California.

5-MILE TUNNEL THROUGH
JURA MOUNTAINS ENDED

BERNE, Switzerland, Oct. 28.—A five-mile tunnel through the Jura mountains from Moutiers, France, to Grenchen, Switzerland, was pierced yesterday after three years of interrupted work. The tunnel will shorten railway communication between Paris and Berne, and Paris and Milan.

The cost of cutting the tunnel was $5,000,000. Of this sum the Eastern Railroad of France contributed $2,000,000.

For This We Give Thanks

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—President Wilson today issued a proclamation designating November 26th as Thanksgiving Day. The proclamation cites that it has been vouchsafed to the United States to remain at peace with honor and to take some part in the succor of suffering by supplying the needs of those in want.

"We've been privileged by our own peace and self control," says the President, "to in some degree steady the counsels and shape the hopes and purposes of the day without fear or distress. Our people have looked upon their own life as a nation with deeper comprehension and a fuller realization of its responsibilities as well as blessings, with a keener sense of the moral and practical significance of what their part among nations may come to be."

Germans Driven Back Across the Yser; 16,000 Killed, 30,000 Wounded, Taken

Snow Interferes With Russian Operations in Poland;
Invaders Resist

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Germans have been driven back across the Yser, losing 16,000 killed and 30,000 wounded and captured, according to the Daily Mail's Rotterdam correspondent.

"Probably never in the history of warfare," the correspondent said, "have combatants fought with equal fierceness."

they could not dig themselves in sufficiently.

"The allies' guns were perfectly served. After the entire German front had been shelled the British and French charged with the bayonet. Many were slain before the Germans, unable to stand the steel, yielded their positions, retreating to the other side of the river, where they now are."

PETROGRAD, Oct. 28.—Snow is interfering with the Russian offensive in Russian Poland by delaying transport movements, the war office admits today. The result is the German retreat is less rapid, and the invaders are resisting strongly. It is denied, however, that they have again assumed the aggressive. In Galicia fighting between the Russians and Austrians has continued without

The would-be assassin, Francisco I. Mugia, was executed after making a confession before George C. Carothers, American consular agent.

New Uprising Now Menace
To South Africa Peace

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Another rebellion has broken out in South Africa, General Christian de Wet and Gen. Christian Frederick Beyers have taken the lead of the rebels in the Orange Free State and western Transvaal.

Having put down the rebellion in the northern province of Cape Colony led by Lieutenant Colonel Maritz, the government of the Union of South Africa is now faced by the more serious rising under these two generals. Beyers resigned the command of the Union forces when Premier Botha decided to take up arms against Germany.

According to an official report armed rebellious commandos are already in existence; the town of Heilbron in the northern part of the Orange River Colony, has been seized and the government officials have been taken prisoners, while a train has been stopped and armed citizens of the defense force have been taken from it and disarmed.

Servians Charged With Butchering, Looting

BERLIN (via The Hague), Oct. 28.—The war office today admits that there has been desperate fighting in Belgium during the past few days and that the number of casualties has been tremendous. At the same time it expresses confidence that the German coast campaign will succeed ultimately.

The enemy offered a stubborn resistance, the statement said, but lost enormously in opposing the advance of German troops who are fighting with the utmost bravery.

From Vienna comes the charge that the Servians are butchering non-combatants, burning and looting. Appeals for aid have been received from Croatia, Slavonia, where the Servians are operating.

OSTEOPATHIC TREATMENT KILLS GERMS, HE SAYS

JACKSON, Mich., Oct. 28.—Addressing the annual convention of the Michigan Osteopathic Association, which assembled here today, Dr. John Deason of Chicago, director of the A. T. Still Research Institute, announced that recent laboratory experiments at his institution had proved conclusively that osteopathic treatment has a specific and powerful effect on germ invasion. This he said, was directly contrary to the belief of the general public that the new school of practice was applicable only to chronic diseases, and not to acute or bacterial conditions.

SEATTLE TIMES USES
FORGERY ON LINCOLN

Trick Invented to Fool Georgia
Negroes Used to Fool
Washington Whites

The Seattle Times is exploiting a bold forgery committed on Abraham Lincoln to trick the voters into voting against state-wide prohibition.

The forged utterance is one representing Abraham Lincoln as being opposed to prohibition of the liquor traffic. The same thing is being used by the liquor interests throughout the state.

Immediately upon its publication in the Times, George D. Conger, Superintendent of the Washington Anti-Saloon League, offered to donate $100 to any charity named by the Times if they would produce proof of the authenticity of the utterance. Mr. Conger's letter reads:

A Fake Denounced
October 12, 1914.

Editor of The Times:
In your campaign in behalf of the foreign liquor corporations, you have inflicted upon your readers numerous fakes.

In spite of the fact that ALL of the whiskey consumed in Washington is manufactured outside of the state, you have sought to flim-flam the people of Washington into rallying to the defense of this outside product on the ground that state-wide prohibition would annihilate this home "industry."

In spite of the fact that every drop of whiskey consumed in the state is of non-union manufacture, you have sought to decoy the union labor forces of the state into coming to the defense of this foreign scab product.

You represent Henry Ward Beecher, the stoutest champion of state-wide prohibition of his day as opposed to that policy when it was chiefly through his efforts that the New York legislature adopted that policy in 1855, which law was annulled by the courts for technical reasons.

You now have committed your crowning offense in perpetrating a deliberate forgery against Abraham Lincoln. In your edition of Sunday, Oct. 11, you quote Lincoln as saying: "Prohibition will work great injury to the cause of temperance. It is a species of intemperance within itself, for it goes beyond the bounds of reason in that it attempts to control a man's appetite by legislation, and in making crimes out of things that are not crimes. A prohibition law strikes a blow at the very principles on which our government was founded. I have always been found laboring to protect the weaker classes from the stronger, and I never can give my consent to such a law as you propose to enact. Until my tongue shall be silenced by death I will continue to fight for the rights of men." Abraham Lincoln never wrote or uttered the above or anything similar to it.

This alleged quotation was deliberately forged by the liquor men thirty years ago at Atlanta, Georgia, and put out in connection with Lincoln's picture in order to trick the Georgia negroes into voting against local prohibition.

Now you are trying to flim-flam the white people of Washington with the same outrageous forgery that you liquor folks used to bunco the negroes of Georgia.

I will give one hundred dollars to any charity that you will name if you will produce proof of the genuineness of the above alleged quotation that will satisfy the librarian of any reputable library in Seattle of its verity.

I now call upon you to produce this proof and win this money or confess to the people that you have imposed upon them a gross forgery against a man who is almost a deity in the hearts of the American people.

Respectfully,
GEORGE A. CONGER,
Supt. Washington Anti-Saloon League.

History of the Fake
The history of this fake utterance purporting to be that of Abraham Lincoln is given out by the Anti-Saloon League people:

In 1887, the people of Atlanta, Georgia, were in the throes of a local option contest. In order to induce the negroes to vote against the dry program, the wets invented a poster headed "For Liberty. Abraham Lincoln's Proclamation." Then the words quoted above by Mr. Conger were given as the "proclamation."

Then at the bottom of the bogus proclamation were these words:

"Colored voters, he appeals to you to protect the liberty he has bestowed upon you. Will you go back on his advice? Look to your rights. Read and act. Vote for the sale."

The fake "proclamation" brought results. The colored voters simply stampeded to the polls and voted the city wet.

The Seattle Times and the liquor corporations are now trying out the same trick with Washington white voters.

"The prosperity for which the state has been famed is quite materially dependent upon total prohibition. A return to the license system would be a great economic mistake."—Cecil W. Newby, cashier, First National Bank, Englewood, Kansas.

"Nothing has a greater tendency to stimulate business and nothing gives it a more active and healthy momentum than prohibition."—W. T. Watson, cashier, Colony State Bank, Colony, Kansas.

"Prohibition is the right and proper thing from a business standpoint. We will never want to return to the saloon."—L. M. Swope, cashier, Exchange National Bank, Cottonwood Falls, Kansas.

WHEEL AND FENDER
OF AUTO SMASHED
IN THIEVES' WRECK

J. P. Hatzfeld, the druggist, has returned to Santa Ana with his automobile, which was stolen from him yesterday and which was wrecked at Oceanside by the two thieves who had it. The left rear wheel was torn off and the left rear fender smashed in the wreck of the automobile. The wreck occurred at the bridge this side of Oceanside.

Alvin Greenberg, who says he is but 15 years old, though he looks to be 22, was arrested. After the wreck he walked on to Oceanside to get help, and was arrested there. He says that his companion was named John Clark, aged about 24. He said that Clark had his left hand slightly cut in the accident.

Greenberg told half a dozen different stories to Under Sheriff Law. His last story is that he and Clark came here from Los Angeles and were on their way to Yuma. Greenberg has been in the juvenile court in Los Angeles. So far as could be learned, Clark was last seen coming this way standing on the running board of an auto that found him at the wreck.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys
and Neutralize Irritating
Acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Advertisement.

PLEDGED THEIR HEARTY SUPPORT
TO S. C. HARTRANFT

Edward Chaffee, Among Others,
Put His Signature to a Paper
Agreeing to Circulate This Petition.

(From the Anaheim Herald)
"To Mr. S. C. Hartranft, Anaheim, California.

"Dear Sir:—A situation has arisen in Orange County which demands that those who are opposed to the saloon should have in the field a candidate for member of the state assembly from this county. At the present time all the candidates now in the field are on the other side of this important question.

"The people of California will be asked to vote next November on the question of state-wide prohibition. Should the prohibition amendment to the state constitution carry, it may be necessary for the next session of the legislature to enact suitable legislation to enforce prohibition within the state.

"On the other hand, should the voters of California fail to adopt the prohibition amendment to the state constitution, then we want a county option law, in which the county shall be the unit, to permit the voters of each county to vote the saloons out of the county if they so desire.

"There is every likelihood that Congress will submit to the several states an amendment to the national constitution, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors throughout the length and breadth of the country. In that event, the voters of Orange County who are opposed to the liquor traffic want to have as their representative in the state assembly a man who will vote in favor of the adoption of this amendment to the national constitution.

"For these reasons, and because we believe that you are in every respect well qualified to represent Orange County in the state assembly, we invite you to become a candidate for member of the state assembly from Orange county, and hereby pledge you our hearty support throughout the campaign."

The above petition addressed to S. C. Hartranft was read at a meeting in Santa Ana on June 28, long before Mr. Chaffee thought of becoming a candidate.

S ALAMITOS BOOZE JOINTS GIVEN A JOLT

Men Arrested and Auto
Truck Load of Liquor
Taken in Raid

Stolen Saddles Recovered; Action Hastened by Leak Yesterday

Los Alamitos was given a clean-up last night by the offices of the district attorney and sheriff. Eight men are in the county jail awaiting hearings on charges of liquor selling. Other arrests will probably be made today or tomorrow.

Human beings are not the only fish in the net. An auto truck load of booze, three saddles, a clock, a pair of scales and other articles were brought back to the county seat. The saddles were recognized as stolen property. District Attorney West has had depends at work in Los Alamitos for two days. It was planned to pull the raid off about November 5 or 6, directly after pay-day, so that gamblers could be taken also, but it was found that information had leaked out.

and for that reason the strike was made at once. The raid was upon the Mexican section of Los Alamitos.
Deputies Koepsel and Eden from the district attorney's office went on the raid. Sheriff Raddock divided his men into five squads. He headed one squad. Others were headed by Under Sheriff Law, City Marshal Jernigan of Santa Ana; Constable Heard and Deputy Sheriff Schumacher of Placentia.
Altogether eleven places were entered. The officers did their work with search warrants.

Two dozen sacks of beer bottles,
empties and fulls, and a dozen demijohns of brandy, wine and whiskey were taken. The men arrested are Domingo Modeno, Filiberto Namarito, Silvestro Mora, Manuel Hernandez, Vicente Naranja, A. Hidalgo, A. Esta-billo and Rafael Mandez. They are all charged with selling liquor. Some of them will be charged with more serious crimes. One man is to be charged with carrying a concealed weapon. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff L. L. Vestal, who found a big beet knife strapped to him.

The officers received efficient aid from Ernest Rice of Los Alamitos, a deputy sheriff.

One of the saddles, found in a poolroom, was stolen three months ago from De Berry of Anaheim. The officers were not resisted and had no trouble in carrying out their plans.
The officers went from Santa Ana in automobiles, and approached Los Ala-mitos with lights out.

This morning G. E. McClellan identified one of the three saddles as one stolen from him. It was borrowed by him from Frank Berry and was stolen on July 15. It is believed that the other saddles were stolen from the cattle ranch in the Santiago canyon.

TWO PROHIBITIONIST NOMINEES SPEAKERS HERE LAST EVENING

A crowd gathered at the corner of Third and Main streets last night to hear the addresses of J. S. Edwards, Prohibition nominee for congressman;
E. A. Chaffee, Prohibition nominee for assemblyman, and M. J. Fanning, a Philadelphia prohibition orator.

Chaffee's argument was that since a great majority of the people of Orange county favor California dry, this county ought to have a dry representative at the legislature. Edwards' remarks were along the same line as his address here two weeks ago.

Fanning is an eloquent speaker. He declared that California should vote dry because of the effect that it will have upon the immigration to this state. He said that if the state is dry those who come to the state will be largely of the best class, and that there will be fewer of the less desir-ables of the tourist class.

He argued that from a standpoint of real economy, prohibition is the logical outcome for this state, as well as nationally.

IS EMINENTLY FITTED BY CHARACTER AND TRAINING FOR POSITION HE SEEKS

R. Y. WILLIAMS

It takes a good lawyer to make a good judge.
R. Y. Williams is a good lawyer. On this point no question is raised. He is not only a good trial lawyer, but he is a safe counsellor—safe, not only in his judgment and the knowledge of the law, but safe in his sense of justice and in his devotion to the best interest of his clients. These facts are attested by his almost unanimous endorsement by the Orange County Bar when he was proposed for appointment when the second judgeship for this county was created.

It takes a man of good character to make a good judge.
That Mr. Williams is a man of unquestionable character is attested by all who know him. Despite the fact that he has been an uncompromising party leader, even those who politically oppose him most strenuously, testify heartily to his probity of character.

It takes a man of courage and firmness to make a good judge.

Mr. Williams meets this requirement fully. One of his strongest characteristics is the calmness with which he reasons things out and the sturdiness with which he adheres to his convictions.

It takes a man with a judicial mind, judicial temperament, to make a good judge.

Mr. Williams' work as a counsellor-at-law and at the bar as well has shown the judicial mind and temperament to a marked degree.

Thus, a vote for R. Y. Williams for Superior Court Judge will be a vote for a man of exceptional qualifications for that office.

ANAHEIM BURGLARS IN A CARNIVAL OF THEIR OWN

ANAHEIM, Oct. 28.—While attending to his duties as one of the executive committee of the carnival now in progress at Anaheim, J. W. Duckworth, former postmaster, had his home at 325 North Los Angeles street, entered by burglars last night. A lady's gold watch, a set of valuable furs, three or four winter dresses, a number of small articles of jewelry, including rings and pins, and some small change were stolen. The loss was about $400.
The burglary occurred between 7:30 and 9 o'clock last night. The thieves broke in the window of the dining room on the north side of the house, unfastened the window catch from the outside and then entered the house.
The burglars turned on every light in the house except that in the dining room and left them burning when they went away.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns
Gray, Faded Hair Dark
and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is nussy and troublesome.
Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—Advertisement.

9 o'clock and, seeing the lights burning, thought that her husband had returned home. However, when she called him, she discovered that a burglary had been committed. The officers were immediately notified.
Every room except the dining room was ransacked by the thieves. In the dining room nothing was touched, not even the silverware.

Another Home Entered
About $8 in cash was taken by burglars from the Louis Handelman home, 701 East Center street, Anaheim, last night between 8 and 10 o'clock. The burglars left no clues.

Wheel Stolen
Ted Kuchel, son of the editor of the Anaheim Gazette, had his wheel stolen from his home on South Gardenia street last night.

Twenty Hoboes Arrested
Twenty vagrants and suspects were arrested by the Anaheim police last night. The hoboes were rounded up on the streets, and in box cars at the Santa Fe station. Thirty of the tramps were fed by the city at breakfast this morning and more were being brought in.

Foley & Burke, managers of the carnival, was stricken with appendicitis last evening and was operated upon at the Anaheim Sanatorium at 8 o'clock this morning. He has a good chance for recovery.

Mrs. Juana de Rubio Reaches
Age of 107 Before Death
in Los Angeles

Los Angeles Times: Spry and intelligent almost up to the last moments of her 107 years of life, Mrs. Juana de Rubio passed away last night at her home, No. 450 West Fifty-ninth place,
the mother of twenty-five children,
and believed to be the oldest Native Daughter in the state. She was born in San Diego in 1807. When she was 30 years of age she married Jose de Rubio, and they moved to Los Angeles, where she has since lived. He passed away thirty years ago. Her death was largely due to age.
The De Rubio family in the early days of California was one of the most noted south of the Tehachapi. Prosperity was theirs, and with it came a large family, six of their twenty-five children being twins. But several years later the smallpox epidemic carried all but five, who are still living in this section.
Mrs. De Rubio leaves four daughters, Mrs. F. N. Staples, wife of Dr.
Staples; Mrs. Frances Berry, Mrs. F.
Butler of El Monte, and Mrs. Lucy
Forbes, and a son, David Rubio.

VOTE FOR

Lieut. Governor
For Governor andAMENDMENTS, INITIATIVES, REFERENDUMS, ETC.

The Register has received many requests for advice as to how to vote on the amendments, initiatives, referendums, etc. Here is a fair sample of these requests:

Orange, Cal., Oct. 26, 1914.
Mr. J. P. Baumgartner,
Editor Santa Ana Register,
Santa Ana, Cal.

Dear Sir:
I have been a subscriber and an interested reader of your very excellent paper from its commencement in Santa Ana. I am also very much exercised regarding the coming election. I think it necessary that care be exercised in marking the ballot, especially the amendments. I admire the very decided stand you have maintained for progressive principles. I am wondering whether we may look for any help from the "Register" on the amendments. I don't want to ask anything unreasonable or anything that would not look right, but really I am afraid that a great many of the amendments will be marked very different from what we Progressives would like to have them. They are worded in such a way that it would need a Philadelphia lawyer to understand them.

Thanking you, I am
Yours for Johnson.
A. L. HAVENS, Booster.
Complying with these requests, the Register has from time to time discussed at some length the more important of the propositions to be voted on, and herewith reviews these and others briefly. Those not here mentioned are either unimportant, or of such a nature that the arguments for and against are very evenly balanced, or they are so complicated that this paper does not feel competent to advise its readers how to vote on them.

No. 1. Calling convention for revision of constitution. The foremost students of civil government and the ablest lawyers in the state are almost unanimous in the opinion that the constitution needs revising. Vote yes.

No. 2. State-wide prohibition. The Register has presented ample argument in favor of this proposed amendment. Vote yes.

No. 3. Universal 8-hour law. We have discussed this measure quite fully. Vote no.

No. 4. Red Light Abatement act. Is in the interest of physical and moral health. Vote yes.

No. 5. Investment Companies act. So-called "Blue Sky" law passed by last legislature and held up by such companies as the Los Angeles Investment Company. It is designed to protect investors against illegitimate stock-selling schemes. Vote yes.

No. 6. Water Commission act. It will prevent monopolization of water and water power, settle water rights disputes economically and effectively, and finally, and secure the highest use of the waters of the state. Vote yes.

No. 7. Home Rule in Taxation. "Any county, city and county, city or town, may exempt from taxation for local purposes in whole or in part any one or more of the following classes: Improvements in, on or over land; shipping; household furniture; live stock; merchandise; machinery; tools; farming implements; vehicles; other personal property except franchises. Any ordinance or resolution of any county, city and county, city or town, exempting property from taxation, as in this section provided, shall be subject to a referendum vote as by law provided for ordinances or resolutions. Taxes levied upon property not exempt from taxation shall be uniform." Vote yes.

No. 8. Exempting vessels from taxation. This would, in effect, subsidize shipping, be in the nature of a gift to ship owners. Vote no.

No. 9. Regulating investment companies. This is superfluous. The main purpose of it will be accomplished by No. 5. Vote no.

No. 10. Abolition of poll tax. This would simply relieve a certain class of men who pay no other taxes than this, and shift the burden to those who pay all the other taxes. Vote no.

No. 11. Provides for a 1/2 per cent bond issue of $1,800,000 for State university buildings. The University of California has over 2,000 students at Berkeley and a total registration of nearly 8,000. The registration is increasing at the rate of 14 per cent each year. The university not only educates students at Berkeley, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Davis, but also in addition carries on important investigations and serves various industries through its stations at San Diego, Riverside, Fresno and Imperial. University extension covers the state and the department of agriculture is working in every county of California.

The service of the university to the state is now crippled because of lack of buildings. Agriculture must have at least one and if possible two new buildings. The new library must be completed. The university has less area for classrooms than have many city high schools. Many courses cannot be given for lack of sufficient rooms. Vote yes.

No. 12. This provides for non-partisan methods of nomination and election of delegates to a constitutional convention, should one be held. This is a very desirable precaution; and whether or not the voter supports the constitutional convention resolution offered at this time, he should vote for this amendment. Vote yes.

No. 13. This is an initiative measure demanding property qualifications from citizens voting at bond elections. While they may have some commendable points of supporting argument, it is really a retrograde step that is proposed in these days of universal suffrage. The existing law requiring a two-thirds majority for the approval of bond propositions sufficiently safeguards the property interest. If property owners alone are to vote, then all property owners should be entitled to vote, whether they are non-residents, foreigners, minors, or what not. The strict application of the rule suggests many impossibilities and inconsistencies. The present system is probably as equitable as any that can be devised. Vote no.

No. 14. This is an initiative act that would enable absentee electors to vote for general offices if they chance to be in other parts of the state on election day. The design is to give all voters a voice in public affairs, even if they may be away from home on election day. There is no cause for opposition to this argument. Vote yes.

No. 15. This is a constitutional amendment proposed for facilitating the condemnation of land for public purposes. It will allow the state, a county or a municipality to condemn property within its limits additional to that actually needed or intended for proposed improvement. The object is to allow scraps or fractions of lots to be included in condemnation so as to avoid injury to property owners, and also to prevent unsightly remnants of real estate being put to undesirable uses. Vote yes.

No. 17. This is a measure which affects no other county in the state except Alameda and is simply an enabling act to assist the citizens of that county in making good their pledge to raise the $1,000,000 promised to the Panama-Pacific Exposition by a number of her prominent citizens. Vote yes.

No. 18. Unless the people vote "yes" on this "Non-Sale of Game" act a few more years will see the practical obliteration of some of the best wild game of this state. Vote yes.

No. 19. This would make it easier for big cities to annex contiguous territory without its consent. Vote no.

No. 20. Prohibits prize-fighting. Vote yes.

No. 22. Provides for the Torrens system of inexpensive and simplified land titles, but is not compulsory. No one need adopt the new system unless he wants to do so. Vote yes.

No. 26. A constitutional amendment which, if carried, will take out of the hands of the boards of supervisors, trustees of drainage, reclamation and irrigation districts all matters relating to those districts and will place them under the control of a state commission. We believe the adoption of all amendment would be disastrous to all drainage, reclamation and irrigation districts. Vote no.

No. 30. This is designed to enable the Imperial Valley irrigation districts to overcome the difficulties encountered because part of their canal system is in Mexico. Vote yes.

No. 31. Provides for valuation by Railroad Commission of public utilities that may be condemned for public use. Vote yes.

No. 35. Provides for $3,000,000 in bonds for an adequate state building in Sacramento. The building is needed and must be provided. Vote yes.

No. 36. This is the San Francisco State Building act—a bond issue of $1,000,000. It ought to carry, because the state now maintains and always will maintain a large number of offices in San Francisco. The state now pays $5144 per month, or $61,728 per year, for office rent in San Francisco. Vote yes.

No. 37. Provides for a bond issue of $750,000 for improvement of State fair grounds at Sacramento. The State fair is a useful institution—highly educational—and the State fair grounds need improvement. Vote yes.

No. 38. Provides for $1,250,000 bonds for a state building in Los Angeles. State officers are now scattered about the city paying high rents. They ought to be all in one building owned by the state. Vote yes.

No. 39. This suspends the Prohibition amendment (No. 2), in the event of its adoption, in order to give those engaged in the liquor business time to get out without loss or with a little loss as possible. In the interest of fairness, vote yes.

No. 40. Provides for extra sessions of District Courts of Appeal at the call of the governor. It simply means the facilitation, without extra expense, of the business of these courts. Vote yes.

No. 41. Tends to prevent the miscarriage of justice through legal technicalities. Vote yes.

No. 42. Corrects a flaw in the law governing payment of interest and principal of bond issues. Vote yes.

No. 43. Exempts educational institutions from taxation. They are exempt in other states and California is thus handicapped. Vote yes.

No. 44. Minimum Wage Amendment. Protects women and children from overwork and underpay. Vote yes.

No. 45. One Day of Rest in Seven. Contains a joker. Would have the same effect as the universal eight-hour law. Says no one should work over 48 hours in any one week. Vote no.

No. 47. An initiative amendment to the constitution prohibiting prohibition elections, after this year, for eight years. The Royal Arch Publicity Bureau is saying that this amendment merely prevents two free elections, and that under it a vote against state-wide prohibition would not make "wet" territory now "dry." Nothing could be farther from the truth. The fact is that this amendment were to carry, all territory voted "dry" under it would be at the mercy of local legislative bodies; while every city and supervisorial district

Will the Electors of Other Parties Vote for Johnson?

(Answer by Supervisor H. E. Smith, Republican, leading Cement Contractor of Santa Ana)

Santa Ana, Cal., Oct. 24, 1914.

John Beatty, Esq.,

President Johnson-Eshleman Club.

Dear Sir:—As a soldier I was granted a privilege that very few men ever had. That privilege was to cast my first vote for Abraham Lincoln. I was only seventeen years old at that time, and I have been a consistent Republican ever since, and expect to remain one. But I believe that it is to the best interests of a great majority of the people of the state of California to elect Governor Johnson for a second term. Therefore I shall vote for Hiram W. Johnson on Nov. 3rd.

Yours truly,
H. E. SMITH.

(Another Answer by Mrs. Lizzie Warren, Prohibitionist, Prominent Civics Club Worker and W. C. T. U. Woman)

Santa Ana, Cal., Oct. 23, 1914.

Mr. John Beatty,

President Johnson-Eshleman Club.

My Dear Sir:—I am registered as a Prohibitionist and firmly believe in the principles of that party. But I would be false to my conception of good citizenship if I failed to recognize the many good laws for the betterment of womanhood and motherhood enacted under the Johnson administration.

The eight hour law for women, the workingmen's compensation act, the equal guardianship for women—these and numerous other humanitarian laws passed by the legislature and approved by Gov. Johnson entitle him to the support of the women of this great state.

I will work and vote for Johnson and Eshleman.

Yours truly,
(MRS.) LIZZIE WARREN.

Whilst it is impossible to say exactly what our losses are, I should estimate them between 350,000 and 400,000 altogether. If it continues at this rate much longer we shall be quite unable to meet Russia with any hope of success."

SIDELIGHTS OF THE WAR

Lied to Save Tommy Atkins

PARIS, Oct. 28.—A French priest who lied to save four English soldiers who got lost from their troop is being hailed as a hero in a little village in eastern France.

The four "Tommys" reached the village late in the afternoon. The priest, realizing what it would mean to him if the Germans found him harboring them, took the soldiers in and fed them and provided them with a place to sleep. Not long after a band of Uhlans rode into town. Assembling of the townpeople the officer in charge demanded that they tell where the Englishmen were as they had seen them enter the town. The townspeople all knew where the four soldiers were but they looked towards their priest.

In a loud voice, so that all the townspeople would be certain to hear him, the priest disclaimed any knowledge of the English soldiers.

"They must have gone towards Paris," he said, and the Uhlans rode away.

Forbidding Heligoland

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Heligoland of today is a vastly different sort of a place than it was prior to the beginning of the war, according to a traveler who has reached here. From the lively, popular seaside resort of a few months ago it has been turned into a grim looking fortification, fairly bristling with guns. No signs of gaiety are seen. All the visitors have had to withdraw and also all the inhabitants of the island who are not detained on military duty have been ordered to depart. The reason for this is that it is planned to prevent the kinning of any non-combatants in case of a battle. Two hospital nurses are the only women on the island.

Fearful German Losses

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 28.—A letter received here by a resident from a friend near the border tells some interesting facts of the way the Germans regard the progress of the war. The letter follows:

"I have seen a letter from a very high German official who has been at the front since the beginning of the invasion of Belgium and is now invalided home in which he says the war is not going as we expected. The resistance of the allied forces is extraordinary and we are beginning to feel very nervous as to the result. Our (German) losses are terrible, so terrible that the Emperor has forbidden their disclosures. Our generals

W. C. T. U. Women Inform Themselves on How to Vote; Plan to Get Out "Drys"

The W. C. T. U. met yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. J. H. Scott led the devotional service and Miss Sarah Finley had charge of the program. A number of campaign songs were sung. A quartet composed of Mesdames Chapman, Post, Smith and Ludwig gave two vocal numbers, accompanied by Mrs. H. A. Moesser. Rev. Paul Stevens gave a splendid address on the part of the Sunday school have in the "Dry" campaign.

Mrs. J. N. Anderson led a discussion on the proposed amendments to be Tuesday. The moral questions among these in which the W. C. T. U. is most vitally interested are Nos. 2, 4, 20 and 47. No. 2 is the prohibition amendment. Vote yes. No. 4 is for the abatement of nuisances. Vote yes. No. 20 is the prize-fight amendment. Vote yes. No. 47 is the most abused one of the amendments. All temperance and most business organizations are against it. W. C. T. U. women should vote no. As it is next to the last in the list of amendments and thus is likely to be overlooked, it was suggested that the women put the cross on that one first, voting no.

Mrs. Tedford spoke on the organized work in the dry campaign that is being done this week, to be put into effect on election day. Every means that is possible will be used to get out the dry vote. There will be automobiles at every voting precinct. Many of those who are unable to get to the polls to work could help the committee by sending in names of "dry" voters and their places of residence. Meetings are being held in every precinct this week.

It was requested at yesterday's meeting that any one having clothing, bedding, or anything pertaining to housekeeping that could be donated to a family who lost all they had by fire last week, will be thankfully received. There are seven children and the mother, and all are destitute. The family is located at 1241 West Second street.

Learn Process of Voting
All women who on next Tuesday will vote for the first time, are invited to go to the Dry Federation headquarters, 441 Main street—the room formerly occupied by the Main Department Store—where the entire process of voting will be explained by competent persons. All women will be welcomed. It is known that there will be many women who will exercise the privilege of voting next Tuesday for the first time, and it will be a pleasure to the ladies at the Dry headquarters to instruct them. The headquarters will be open days and evenings till election day.

Halloween Social
The Fraternal Brotherhood lodge will hold a Halloween social at the Brotherhood hall on Thursday night. All friends are invited to be present. Refreshments will be served after the business session. All members are asked to be present and help make the affair a success.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Forgy Reach Half Century Milestone in Wedded Life

Fifty years ago yesterday, on October 27, 1864, C. S. Forgy and Miss Elizabeth L. Moorhead were married at the bride's home at New Carlisle, Ohio, the bridegroom hailing from Forgy, Ohio, a town bearing its name in honor of the Forgy family. After the half century elapsing since that day, when "all the world was wondrous fair to the bridegroom and the bride," Mr. and Mrs. Forgy, hale, prosperous and happy, yesterday celebrated their golden wedding day in lovely Southern California. Delightfully was the anniversary observed. The initial event of the day was a family luncheon at the Bush street home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Forgy, where the rooms had been made lovely with masses of golden-hued chrysanthemums. The same rich flowers adorned the table where were seated Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Forgy, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Forgy and children, Fred and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Forgy and son, Edward, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Melvin, parents of Mrs. Edward Forgy, of Los Angeles. A white and gold color scheme was developed in the table appointments, the nut cups being in the golden tint, while the place cards were gilt-edged, mounted with tiny gilt wedding bells tied with white satin ribbon, bearing the names of the bride and bridegroom in gilded letters and the dates of the first and golden days done in gold.

In the afternoon and evening the home of the Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Forgy, 512 Bush street, adjoining the H. J. Forgy home, was the scene of a delightfully informal reception that was a complete and happy surprise to the honorees. One hundred people paid their respects to these highly esteemed people who have been prominent in the making of this beautiful city and who have ever been identified with all that would advance its welfare. The house was radiant with the tint of gold as seen in quantities of yellow, fluffy chrysanthemums, and bouquets of these and other lovely flowers taken by those who called through the afternoon and evening, made the house a perfect bower of blossoms. Many handsome gifts were evidences of the affection of the friends who presented them. Buffet refreshments of ice cream and cake, in which the gold and white color scheme prevailed, and salted pecans, were served throughout the informal reception. Mrs. H. J. Forgy, acting as hostess, was assisted in receiving by Mesdames O. K. Forgy, Mary Heathman, Frank Remsburg, E. S. Wallace, Frank Remsburg and Mrs. E. W. Forgy of Los Angeles, Miss Dorothy Forgy assisted in serving.

The unavoidable absence of Mr. and Mrs. Forgy's only daughter, Mrs. Elmer E. Wagner of Chicago, her husband and their two children, Martha and Edward, was the only cloud that marred an otherwise perfect day that will be treasured in the memory of those honored through all their future years. Of these may there be many to "crown Life's goblet to the brim, while across its Western rim, shines the sun."

At San Bernardino
Mrs. A. J. Lawton, president of the Southern District of the California Federation of Woman's Clubs, went to San Bernardino this morning to attend the opening meeting of the Woman's Club of that city held today, and the San Bernardino County Federation of Clubs to be held tomorrow. She is on the program of each meeting, and will address the women of each meeting on the general theme of club work.

To Explain Amendments
Tomorrow evening, Thursday, Oct. 29, at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a meeting at the Spurgeon Memorial M. E. Church, South, for the purpose of hearing an explanation of the various amendments to be voted on in the coming election. Messrs. L. A. West and S. M. Davis will be the speakers. The general public is invited to attend.

The charming home of Mrs. W. H. Thomas on West First street was the scene yesterday afternoon of a meeting of the Past Matrons' Association. The pretty luncheon table was centered with yellow cactus dahlias massed in a brown basket, and yellow chrysanthemums were used in the decorations of the dining room and other rooms used in the afternoon. The ladies chatted over dainty needlework in the hours following the luncheon.

Those for whom covers were marked by dainty place cards conforming with the yellow color scheme were Mrs. A. J. Crookshank, Mrs. Eleanor Martin, Mrs. Kate Felton, Mrs. A. W. Rutan, Mrs. J. G. AMUSEMENTS

Salisbury's Fish and Game Pictures
Are you interested in birds? Would you like to watch the mallard duck in its nest? Would you enjoy going with other wild birds as they go about their daily tasks?

Would you like to watch a quail hunt over trained dogs? Would you like to go with the market hunter, and see him at his deadly work?

It has been said that the scenes in the great pelican rookery alone are worth twice price of admission. Altogether, the Salisbury fish and game pictures constitute one of the most remarkable aggregations of wild bird and animal photographs ever taken. Recommended by the State Fish and Game Commission and the California Associated Societies for the Conservation of Wild Life.

Their taking necessitated the overcoming of almost insurmountable obstacles, and the suffering of great hardships. Two years and many thousands of dollars were put into the work.

The something different that these pictures introduce into the "movies" appeals to all.

They will be seen at the Grand Opera House for two nights and Saturday matinee, commencing Friday night, October 30.

Temple Theatre

The Temple Theatre will offer to its patrons for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, Dustin Farnum in the greatest picture ever produced, "The Virginian." This production will no doubt pack the house, and patrons wishing good seats should be on hand early.

For the benefit of the dry movement in California the Temple Theatre will play John Barleycorn next Sunday only, matinee and evening.

IMPORTANT LECTURE FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

It is stated that the lecture on "The Mifflin Child" to be given tonight by Dr. Hoag of Los Angeles at the Intermediate School at 7:30 o'clock, is the most important talk that the parents and teachers of Santa Ana are likely to hear on any similar subject this year. It is therefore hoped that a large audience will greet Dr. Hoag. The lecture is being given under the auspices of the City Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, which holds its first regular meeting tonight.

ORANGE CITIZENS MUCH INTERESTED IN AMENDMENTS

(By Staff Correspondent)
ORANGE, Oct. 28.—A large crowd turned out last night to attend a meeting in Campbell's hall where the proposed state amendments were discussed with a view to educating the public on the matters involved. Arguments on both sides of the questions to be voted on were presented and different ones present offered their opinions. E. E. Keech and S. M. Davis of Santa Ana were among the speakers who were present to talk on the amendments. The meeting was of much interest to all who attended. Mrs. Carter Stokes, a widely known temperance worker and lecturer discussed the proposed state amendments yesterday afternoon at the First Baptist church. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Orange W. C. T. U. and invitations were extended to the Ladies' Aid and Missionary societies of all the local churches. A large number responded and the meeting was one of exceptional interest to all. The American Woman's League met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. F. W. Grumman on East Palmyra Ave. There was a large attendance and the meeting was of unusual interest. The hostess served refreshments before the meeting adjourned. The next meeting of the League will be held November 17th with Mrs. H. J. Le Beuf on South Olive street.

The Daughters of Veterans of Orange Tent No. 3 will entertain the G. A. R. veterans and their wives Friday, A. 12 o'clock dinner will be given at Odd Fellows Hall and a general good time is planned.

The Delta Alpha class of the M. E. Sunday school held a meeting last evening at the home of Miss Bessie Stinson on South Grand street. The principal business of the evening was the completion of the quilt which the class has been working on. The evening was concluded with the serving of refreshments.

W. A. Dyer, T. J. Eljah, J. V. Sutton and G. E. Hart will leave for Hemet tomorrow to hunt quail. They will remain until Saturday evening.

Mr. Spence of Los Angeles was here on a business trip today.

Mrs. W. M. Fishback and children of Anaheim are spending the day here. Arthur Pratt will leave this evening for Long Beach to remain indefinitely.

G. H. Hopkinson of Los Angeles has been making a short visit at the Roy Melton home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Decker and family, Miss Helen Kolberg and Arthur Pratt motored to Laguna Beach yesterday.

Mrs. Harry Compton of Trabuco is making a short visit with relatives here.

The Modern Priscillas are holding a meeting this afternoon at the home of Miss Foster Billingsley.

A. D. Taylor made a business trip to Los Angeles today.

The sewing circle will meet tonight with Miss Helen Miller on South Grand street.

So much for his defense of present conditions. Now let us examine his attack on the proposed prohibition amendment.

First, let us state some facts. In "dry" Kansas last year there were 704 arrests for drunkenness.

In "wet" California last year there were over 42,000 arrests for drunkenness.

In Kansas 59.1 per cent of the families own their own homes.

In California 46.3 per cent of the families own their own homes.

Kansas has 43.5 paupers per 100,000 of population.

California has 195.4 paupers per 100,000 of population.

Kansas has 172.2 insane per 100,000 of population.

California has 277.7 insane per 100,000 of population.

QUEEN VIVIAN'S RULE OVER PIONEER WEEK CELEBRATION BEGINS MOST AUSPICIOUSLY

Anaheim's Pioneer Week celebration was launched last night with the crowning of the queen, a public wedding and the queen's ball, given upon a paved street. An entire block of Claudia street was set apart for the dancers. The entire town is in gala attire.

A big crowd was in attendance, and there is every indication that the celebration will be a success every minute of the time up to the closing hour late Saturday night.

Tomorrow afternoon will be Fraternal Day. The parade will start at 2 o'clock. Friday afternoon will be Orange County Day, and upon that day a large number of the pioneers of the county will be in the parade. County officers are to be there "in bulk."

Queen Vivian was crowned at eight o'clock, the throne having been erected at the southern end of the enclosure. Rev. David Todd Gilmer in his gracious manner, placed the crown upon Miss Vivian Fox, who commenced her five-day reign over the Mother Colony City.

Immediately after the coronation of the sovereign, a public wedding took place from the queen's throne, Justice Howard performing the ceremony. These two pleasant features are not all that had been planned by the committee for the entertainment of the public, for a grand ball followed, the first street dance to be given in the county.

This immense moonlight party was something quite out of the ordinary, and a most striking scene.

Claudia street, within the canvas enclosure, was decorated suggestively of the occasion, and the space was illuminated with varicolored lights. This beautiful setting, together with the merry crowd, presented a most beautiful sight.

Rev. Baker P. Lee on 'True Temperance versus Prohibition'

The article of Rev. Baker P. Lee, an Episcopal clergyman of Los Angeles, Cal., entitled "Real Temperance versus Prohibition"—in which he opposes the adoption of the proposed amendment for prohibition in the State of California—published in pamphlet form and distributed widely throughout the state—merits more than passing notice.

Both because of the clerical position of its author and because of its adoption by the forces opposed to prohibition as one of their principal means of attack, this particular pamphlet attracts attention.

The author, being an Episcopal clergyman, is therefore presumably a man of superior education—a man capable of carefully stating his opinions and of conveying his exact meaning when he expresses himself in printed sentences. Therefore, in examining his thesis, there must be a certain exactitude in the use of words and phrases.

Let us, therefore, before attempting to analyze his argumentation, furnish a few accepted definitions.

First: It is agreed by all that the proposed prohibition amendment refers solely to "intoxicating liquors." This is the language of the amendment under discussion.

Second: "Intoxicating" is defined thus: "Producing, or fitted to produce, intoxication." Webster says: "All courts take judicial notice of the nature of the ordinary intoxicating liquors, such as brandy, whisky, wine, beer, ale, gin, etc."

Third: "Intoxication" is thus defined: "a poisoning, as by a spirituous or narcotic substance; state of being intoxicated or drunk; inebriation, drunkenness; act of intoxicating, or making drunk; a high excitement of mind; an elation which rises to enthusiasm, frenzy, or madness."

Fourth: "Temperance" is thus defined: "Habitual moderation in the indulgence of the appetites and passions; moderation, as in eating and drinking; temperance in any pleasure; specif., moderation in, or, narrowly, abstinence from, the use of intoxicants."

It is not anticipated that any one—least of all an educated man such as the Rev. Baker P. Lee, will object to any of these definitions.

Keeping these definitions in mind, let us analyze the arguments presented by the Rev. Baker P. Lee.

He opposes the prohibition amendment, and in the absence of any statement by him to the contrary, it is fair to assume that he defends the present conditions surrounding the manufacture, sale and consumption of intoxicating liquors. He calls this condition one of "Real Temperance."

In this state last year there were over 42,000 arrests made for drunkenness.

Drunkenness is not included under the definition of Temperance.

Mr. Lee, therefore, is not arguing in favor of "Real Temperance" when he defends present conditions. He is really defending a mixed lot of conditions surrounding the liquor traffic—drunkenness, temperate use of intoxicants and abstinence from such use.

If Mr. Lee is the educated man he is presumed to be on account of his clerical position, he must accept without quibble the conclusion reached. There is no getting away from it.

So much for his defense of present conditions. Now let us examine his attack on the proposed prohibition amendment.

First, let us state some facts. In "dry" Kansas last year there were 704 arrests for drunkenness.

In "wet" California last year there were over 42,000 arrests for drunkenness.

In Kansas 59.1 per cent of the families own their own homes.

In California 46.3 per cent of the families own their own homes.

Kansas has 43.5 paupers per 100,000 of population.

California has 195.4 paupers per 100,000 of population.

Kansas has 172.2 insane per 100,000 of population.

California has 277.7 insane per 100,000 of population.

est United States census reports.

The comparison in every instance is favorable to prohibition Kansas and against non-prohibition—or, as Mr. Lee puts it, "Real Temperance"—California.

Yet Mr. Lee says "Prohibition is a menace to the civil and religious liberty of the American people."

He says it is "Un-American, intemperate, non-scriptural and un-Christian."

Let us analyze.

Less drunkenness is un-American, says Mr. Lee.

Fewer state prisoners is a menace to our civil liberty, says Mr. Lee.

More children in school is un-Christian, says Mr. Lee.

More families owning their own homes is non-scriptural, says Mr. Lee.

Fewer paupers is un-American, says Mr. Lee.

Fewer insane is "intemperate," says Mr. Lee.

He also asserts that Prohibition—which reduces drunkenness, insanity, pauperism and crime—is a "wolf in sheep's clothing."

Bully for the wolf! It is immaterial whether the wolf has sheep's clothing or wears a frock coat—he delivers the goods!

Mr. Lee says that his article, "Temperance versus Prohibition," is self-explanatory.

It is.

Mr. Lee refers to Magna Charta, the Revolutionary War and the Civil War. Just what these events have to do with the matter under discussion must remain an unsolved problem. Yet it is probably well enough for Mr. Lee to work on some well-trodden phrases that mean nothing in relation to his subject. Great orators are much given to that sort of thing.

We make no complaint against Mr. Lee for this digressing. Whatever is lost in continuity of argument is gained in rhetorical effect.

But if he means to intimate that prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors—(reader, kindly refer to definitions second and third, above)—would destroy the liberties gained in consequence of the historical events which he cites, then his logic is all wrong when it bumps up against the figures given in the United States census reports, quoted above.

Moreover, he should know as a learned man, that the federal and state courts have time and again stated their conclusion that the individual has no inherent right—in prohibition states or elsewhere—to manufacture and sell intoxicants. He is only permitted to do so in non-prohibition states subject to the police powers of the state. This means that the state, in the exercise of its police powers, has the right under the constitution of the United States—which Mr. Lee cites—to prohibit such manufacture and sale.

This is the same constitution which secured our liberties after the Revolutionary War, to which Mr. Lee directs attention.

Mr. Lee proceeds to find fault with the clergyman who advocates Prohibition; but we submit that neither they nor Mr. Lee will be the subject upon which the people will vote on November 3.

The Rev. Baker P. Lee, an educated man and a clergyman, should be logical enough and Christian enough to leave such fault-finding out of the discussion. It has nothing to do with the case, except it be used as an appeal to prejudice.

Mr. Lee's heaviest arguments are directed in an attempt to prove that Prohibition is non-scriptural. He cites a wealth of texts from the Bible to prove that the ancient Jewish race drank intoxicating liquors.

No doubt they did. They also had kings. They also practiced polygamy. They also owned slaves.

All of which can be proven by quotations from the Bible.

Tories in 1776 quoted the Bible in an endeavor to convince the colonists that they should submit to the rule of George III.

Mormons quoted the Bible in defense of polygamy.

And Rev. Baker P. Lee, right in line, quotes the Bible in defense of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

But the American people do not want kings, nor polygamy, nor slavery—even if the Jews did have those things two or three thousand years ago.

And just as they refused to submit to George III; just as they refused to tolerate polygamy; just as they abolished slavery—so will the finally de-side to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. (Reader—Just refresh your memory by reading again the definitions given above, together with the statistics from the United States census reports.)

Ridiculous as are the contentions of Rev. Baker P. Lee, thus far considered, his predicament becomes pathetic when he appeals to Jesus of Nazareth to support him in his defense of what he calls "Real Temperance"—which includes drunkenness, temperate use of intoxicants and abstinence from such use.

Picture the Christ endorsing this kind of thing: In Portland, Oregon, one day recently Oscar Harris, a blacksmith, cut the throat of his blind wife. After killing her he took his own life. We quote from the Portland Telegram:

"Harris had been drinking heavily of late and was supposed to have attacked his helpless wife while in an alcoholic frenzy. That the wife, who had been blind for some time, put up an unequal struggle against the drunken murderer was apparent from the jumbled condition of the furniture and from the condition of the woman's face."

The above is only one of a hundred such incidents that happen under the conditions which prevail under Mr. Lee's regime of what he is pleased to term "Real Temperance."

And he invokes the help of the gentle Jesus to continue such conditions!

In justification of his advocacy of present conditions Mr. Lee points out that Jesus turned water into wine.

Biblical scholars—men who like Mr. Lee, are versed in the languages from which we have received our translations of the Old and New Testaments—contend that the wine thus spoken of was unfemented. It is known that the Jews drank both fermented and unfemented wine. It may be a disputed point as to whether the wine referred to by Mr. Lee was fermented or unfemented.

But let us look carefully at the relation of this incident to the question of prohibition. Let us get a clear view of the facts, then we may reach a safe conclusion.

First: The proposed prohibition amendment would prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor.

Second: Intoxicating liquor is liquor that is defined as "producing or fitted to produce intoxication."

Third: Intoxicating is defined as "a poisoning, as by a spirituous or narcotic substance; an elation that rises to enthusiasm, frenzy or madness."

Mr. Lee's contention is that the act of Jesus was such as to make a liquor producing or fitted to produce poisoning with resultant elation which rises to enthusiasm, frenzy or madness.

Either the popular conception of the character of Jesus is all wrong or Mr. Lee's contention is erroneous. They cannot be brought into sympathy with each other. They are distinctly hostile to each other.

If we have to choose between Mr. Lee's contention and the belief of the Christian world, we will not hesitate to accept the latter and reject the former.

Turn, then, to Mr. Lee's assertion that "there is more physical suffering caused by over-eating than by over-drinking" of intoxicating liquor.

We cannot recall that we have ever heard of a man over-eating to such an extent that he cut the throat of his blind wife.

This puts Mr. Lee "in bad." However, his logical mind will no doubt find a way out by concluding that since he has never had his throat cut, he cannot affirm that physical suffering would result therefrom.

The human mind is so wonderfully constituted that it sometimes pretends to mistake logic for reason.

Possibly it has never occurred to Mr. Lee that organized society protects itself and its members by laws. Prohibition is proposed in order to protect men and women from the crime, insanity, disease and poverty which follow as a result of the manufacture and sale of liquor which produces poisoning with resultant frenzy or madness.

Finally, it may be said that there is not in Mr. Lee's whole chain of argument one single link strong enough to bind any intelligent, disinterested voter to support present conditions surrounding the liquor traffic.

Frank Gould, of San Francisco, former speaker of the California assembly, the man who wrote the Australian ballot law into the statutes of the state, who personally knew both Mr. Kettner and Mr. Needham in the north, nailed Mr. Needham to the wall with this question:

"If you, Mr. Needham, a member of the ways and means committee of the House of Representatives in 1911, were unable to prevent lemons being placed on the free list by the House, and Mr. Kettner, a green bean in the session of 1913, was able to secure a rate of 50c a hundred, upon what do you base your claim that you should be elected over Mr. Kettner this year?"

Mr. Needham has not been able to give a satisfactory answer to the foregoing question because he cannot deny the facts stated therein.

BOARD OF FORESTRY

TO BE UNLAWFUL TO PUT SIGNS ON ROADS

Clutter of Advertisements Will

COUNTY ORDINANCE TO GIVE AUTHORITY

Five Hundred More Deodars
Are to Be Bought for Use
on Highways

Within a short time the Board of Supervisors will be asked by the Board of Forestry to pass an ordinance that will help to do away with the sign and placard nuisance along public highways in this county. There is already a state law against tacking signs to trees on county roads, but that law became effective only with the organization of the forestry board. For that reason it is hard to determine what placards and sign boards have been put up since the law became effective here.

The foresters now propose to have a county ordinance that will go further than trees. They want a law that will make it unlawful for any person without a permit to put up signs, advertisements or placards or to paint or paste or tack anything upon bridges, fences, poles or structures upon any public highway or public property, including the county park and county farms. Temporary danger signs will be excepted.

The foresters want to start the thing off clean, so it is proposed to send out a crew of men to remove the great litter of signs of various kinds that now disfigure the state and county highways. A. E. Bennett, member of the board from Tustin, stated that it will be no small job to remove the advertising cards and signs that are on the public roads in the Tustin district alone. He favored doing the necessary work, and to follow up with vigorous prosecutions for violations.

The district attorney's office will draw up the required ordinance.

Buy More Deodars

County Forester Grant recommended the purchase of 500 deodars from a Huntington Beach nursery, and he and R. E. Larter, member of the board from Wintersburg, were authorized to buy the trees, which are now about three inches high. Grant stated that he has been unable to buy deodar seed. He considers the deodar, sometimes called the Indian cedar, one of the best trees available for use on county roads, as it grows well with little water, is long-lived and a handsome tree. The county has bought 1400 deodars from a Pomona nursery. These purchases follow the conclusion that 2000 deodars ordered from France through Germain will not get here, the European war being given the credit for the non-arrival of the little trees.

Gets Some Relief

Mrs. Berneke of Prospect avenue, Tustin, was before the board in regard to her petition for removing trees in front of the Berneke ranch. She stated that the trees cast such a heavy shade that during the winter months the house gets so little sunshine that the health of the occupants is damaged. The forestry board decided to

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Advertisement.

BELGIAN WOMAN MAKES APPEAL TO AMERICANS

Mme. Lola van der Velde, wife of Emil van der Velde, Belgian minister of state, and one of the envoys sent by King Albert to present the case of Belgian wrongs to President Wilson, arrived in the United States some time ago with an appeal to Americans to help her countrymen and women. She is a noted European writer and lecturer. A statement she gave out was as follows:

"I have come from Antwerp to appeal to the generosity of the great American democracy on behalf of my countrymen, whose land has been ravaged by the horrors of war through no fault of their own and thousands of whom are now destitute.

"Thousands of them have lost all they had—lands, houses, homes, money and the very tools with which they got their daily bread. Thousands are even without proper clothing and are becoming wanderers and outcasts upon the face of the earth.

"I wish to call the attention of the American people to what I have myself seen—the stream of refugees leaving Malines during the bombardment, the murderous raids of the Zeppelins and the story of the burning of Louvain."

'German Cause Progressing to Victory; Thousands Dead and Wounded on Battle Fields'

A letter, containing some interesting information in regard to the European struggle and its effects on conditions as they exist in Germany, has been received by Mrs. L. Reuter, 909 Grand avenue, from a brother in Hoechst, Germany. The brother is in the government employ, in the railway service. The letter was written September 29. Says the letter in part:

"In the different theaters of war no decisive battles have been staged although fighting has been progressing night and day.

"Daily thousands of dead and wounded covered the battlefields. The situation as concerns Germany is good. The German cause is slowly but surely progressing to victory. But it is costing enormous sacrifice of human lives.

"Trains with wounded are arriving daily and no one who has not seen the conditions can imagine the horror of it all. But all are praying for a quick return to health, to begin anew to fight for the dear Fatherland.

"My dear son Karl was still among the living on September 17. On that day we received a great sad letter from him in which he set forth the horror and suffering of war. He wrote he was at the end of his strength and his feet were no longer able to carry him on through the terrific and strenuous campaign.

"On account of swollen feet he had been unable for 22 days to remove his boots. Since the beginning of the war his uniform had never left his body. From the very start his infantry regiment was always in the first line of fire and of his first comrades allow the removal of some of the trees between the driveway and the south line of the Berneke property, covering a distance of about 200 feet. Most of the poplars can be left and all of the scraggly cypress removed, and still leave plenty of trees for street purposes and at the same time give some relief to the property owner.

Mrs. A. S. Bradford of Placentia, a member of the forestry committee of the County Federation of Women's Clubs, was present at the meeting yesterday. She said that she did not believe that there was much for the women's committee to do as she thought the forestry board was looking after the welfare of the trees in a careful and painstaking manner. On the recommendation of the forester, a permit was granted the Pa-few are still living.

"The Russians, who in great masses invaded East Prussia and perpetrated enormous depredations are at last decisively defeated and driven out of East Prussia. The Russian army was completely beaten and almost annihilated. More than 13,000 prisoners were taken and more than 1000 pieces of artillery and other war material in great quantity. It is certain that nothing will come of the boasted triumphant Russian entry into Berlin. It is a fortunate thing for Germany that now all battles are being fought in the enemy's territory.

"In Germany commercial life is gradually beginning to resume its normal condition and it is the prospect that, if the war does not last too long and ends with our victory (for which at this time the prospects are of the brightest) Germany will withstand the war's results in better fashion than any of the other nations now fighting. "To meet the expenses of the war nearly $1,000,000,000 was subscribed by the bankers and business men of the country, surely ample proof of the German financial strength.

"The cost of living has increased but little since the war. Of meat and provisions there is an ample supply so that Germany will be able to hold out as long as "our English cousins," who have determined to wipe out Germany. I think they have miscalculated.

"In Germany there remain millions of men, the majority of whom are capable of carrying arms. Very few men over 39 years of age have so far gone to the front."

The forester and A. S. Bradford, member from Placentia, were named a committee with power to act in relation to the petition of Mrs. Durham of Buena Park. The petitioner stated that it is her desire to beautify her street frontage along twenty acres, and she wanted to know what kind of trees she could plant. She said that she would co-operate with the board in taking care of the trees.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

BOUNDARY LINES OF STORM WATER DISTRICT SETTLED

Resolution of Formation is Passed, as Agreed Upon
Two Weeks Ago

Yesterday the Board of Supervisors passed a resolution forming the Yorba Storm Water District in accordance with the agreement entered into two weeks ago. As passed, the resolution does not include the lands of P. A. Stanton, G. Stock and others west of Anaheim.

The purpose of the district is to build a dike and do protective work on the Santa Ana river at Yorba. The Anaheim Storm Water District resolution was passed recently, so that the two districts will work out an effective bank along the west side of the river. Their plans include nothing on the east side.

Good Roads Matters
On the recommendation of the County Highway Commission the contract for paving Talbert road, section 3, was let to Max L. Huberman for $20,584.95.

Bids for paving the Brea canyon road will be opened November 10.

The hearing of the petition of J. F. Lee to close a road in the Tustin district was set for November 10.

HAVE YOU CATARRH?

It's a Dangerous Disease;
Hyomel is the Effective Remedy

Catarrh, which is indicated by sniffing, frequent colds and crusts in the nose, is a serious disease and if not checked surely spreads to the delicate lining of the air passages, and frequently destroys the hearing.

To cure catarrh you must have something that will quickly reach the diseased tissues, kill the germs, and drive out the poison.

Hyomel is just such a remedy. Being a mixture of antiseptic oils that you breathe through a small inhaler, its health-restoring medication cannot help going direct to the raw and inflamed lining of the nose and throat, quickly relieving that choked-up feeling, stopping the unclean discharges, and healing the sore spots—your breathe freely. Even the worst cases respond at once.

There is nothing for the treatment of catarrh ills that is easier, more pleasant or so satisfying as Hyomel. Rowley Drug Co. sells it on the "N-cure-no-pay" plan.—Advertisement.

REJECT HALF MILE SECTION OF SURFACING

Highway Commission to Resurface Strip of Olinda Road
Running Into Placentia

The surfacing of a half-mile section of the Olinda road, running from the old Placentia store to the present town of Placentia has been rejected by the Orange County Highway Commission. The section will be resurfaced by the commission, with its private outfit. The decision to reject the surfacing of that portion of the road was arrived at yesterday at a meeting of the commission.

It is thought the surfacing proved unsatisfactory for the reason that the concrete surface was not swept clean before the surface of rock screenings and oil was put on.

Santa Ana Canyon Open
The commissioners visited section 4 of the Riverside road yesterday and accepted the section. The Santa Ana canyon road is now open for its entire distance to the county line.

Bids for paving the Brea canyon road, from Fullerton to the county line, were advertised yesterday, to be opened November 10. The letting of the contract of this work will be contingent upon the securing of rights of way from the various oil company properties.

The final surfacing work on the Newport road was completed yesterday.

The Highway Commission is preparing to begin active operations soon on section 3 of the Riverside road extending from Olive to Peralta. The commission hopes to be able to advertise for bids by the middle of November.

When, in addition to the foregoing work, the two-and-one-half-mile strip of road from Anaheim to Olive is advertised for bids all the work called for under the $1,250,000 good roads bonds will have been completed or under way.

Pond is still in the race for completion.

Mr. Hartranft and Progressive Party Schemes

THE HARTRANFT FORCES ARE SAILING UNDER FALSE COLORS. THE MOVEMENT IS TWO-FOLD. It is on the part of many an honest attempt to elect a dry candidate for no other reason than that he is dry. It is in part a movement to HELP AND SERVE THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY regardless of its effect on the dry vote, since it is hoped to pull enough dry votes to be helpful.

It has been MANIPULATED BY SINGLE BRAINS under this two-fold phase.

The dry section have been sincere in thinking they were helping the dry cause and all parties have been represented.

The others have been subtle, secretive and wily, the tail that has wagged the dog.

The movement was FIRST CONCEIVED in the minds of some as an attempt to put Hartranft in Weisel's place on the regular party ticket, at least it was so expressed to us and to two others by the same inside informant from their side. Prominent Progressives frankly admit the scheme.

It was planned to use the Dry Federation to swing the dry vote. We were asked to help.

As part of the plan it was decided to run Hartranft as an Independent so as to get the "solid" dry vote. It was held that his sympathy for the party of which he was a member, would, to all intents and purposes, help the party.

It was boldly stated to us by an Anaheim man that it would be possible to so use the Federation.

Hartranft WAS BOLDLY DECLARED to be the Dry Federation candidate and many so considered him.

We were approached soon after the Federation was formed and SO LICITED WITH REFERENCE TO USING THE FEDERATION INFLUENCE FOR THE CANDIDATE.

Being a Progressive Party man attempts have been made to use us. We have held the cause of California Dry above PARTY.

It was stated to us that it would be possible to USE THE DRY VOTE AND THE FEDERATION to elect the "right men" and that ALL THE CANDIDATES selected could be put through.

We do not accuse the Federation as an organization, of any wrong intent, but WE DO KNOW THAT AN ATTEMPT WAS MADE TO USE THE FEDERATION FOR PARTISAN AND PERSONAL ENDS.

It was not till the Federation showed its loyalty to the fundamental principles it represents by passing a resolution so declaring on October 3, that influences ceased to be brought to bear upon this office to get us to help use it for partisan purposes.

THE REASON WHY HARTRANFT WAS NOT WILLING TO ARBITRATE THE CANDIDACY WITHOUT FORCING IT INTO COMMITTEES WAS THAT THERE WERE OTHER ENDS HE WAS SERVING THAN CALIFORNIA DRY. This is said with conviction.

The reason why he accepted the place after the Primary and about Sept. 1, when there was no need of any other dry man in the field, since Chaffee was already there, was that he was willing to divide the dry vote and there were party ends to serve.

It was thought better politics to run him as an Independent than to let him compete openly for a place on the Progressive ticket at the primary.

An attempt has been made since the Primary to get Weisel to lay down and turn his wet votes to Hartranft for the sake of the party.

An attempt has been made and presented more than once to us to have Chaffee consent to go into arbitration with Weisel and Hartranft under a plan which would have made possible the elimination of both dry candidates and left Weisel in the race. More low level politics.

The party managers induced Edwards to come and tour the county and get their support and AGREED TO SEND A PROGRESSIVE speaker with him. They tied him up to Hartranft and tried to use his popularity to bolster Hartranft. If the latter is running on a dry issue why should such a trick be used?

THE NIGGER IN THE WOODPILE IS APPARENT TO ALL WHO THINK. It is recognized by many prominent men, and many Progressives condemn it.

IT IS THIS POLITICAL SCHEMING AND TRICKERY THAT HAS DIVIDED THE DRY VOTE AND RISKED THE CAUSE and sought to blacken Chaffee's reputation.

HAND. We prefer to be a man without a party to being connected in any manner with such disreputable politics.

We have been trying since June to KEEP THE CAUSE OF CALIFORNIA DRY FROM IMPROPER ALLIANCE.

As a member of the Federation County Central Committee we contended for the passage of the resolution which put it openly and publicly on its actual foundation.

BE IT UNDERSTOOD, we do not here accuse the Dry Federation of wrong, BUT WE DO ACCUSE CERTAIN MANIPULATORS, some of whom have signed the mis-statements of half truths, which have been made. The Federation stands squarely on the declaration that it will show no preference for any candidate and favor no party, but work for California Dry only, and should receive the support of every dry man to that end.

"CALIFORNIA DRY" CAUSE ADVANCES BY WEIGHT OF REASON

(From the Long Beach Press.)

The Press has been and is unswervingly in favor of "California dry." Reason dictates and humane impulses impel it to this course. The Press has studied the issue carefully, as it is presented here in California, with all its main and lateral phases. It has studied it with open mind, to get at the truth from all angles and to strike a balance of judgment therefrom. From this all-round survey of the issue The Press has reached its firm, unshakable attitude in favor of the suppression of the liquor traffic in California, as proposed in the pending amendment. The Press's attitude is firm and unshakable because voluntarily formed by it, based upon clarified judgment conversant with facts and contentions involved in the issue. The Press is strongly of the belief that the balance of power as between "wets" and "drys" in this state is held by men who may have been in doubt as to the proper attitude for them to take but who, considering the matter calmly, intelligently and fair-mindedly, giving a hearing to both sides, have decided that it were better for California to be "dry" or who will so decide if properly approached. Should the "dry" amendment win, as The Press hopes it will, it will be because this balance-of-power vote, composed of many who themselves drink moderately, will have been cast for the "dry" amendment.

The "dry" cause in this state is strong and is growing stronger because it is predicated upon broadmindedness and tolerance. Both sides are being given a fair hearing. The "Dry" forces welcome this, as well they may. They have nothing to fear from the fullest enlightenment and argument possible. They well may invite "wet" exponents to meet them in public debates, as is being done by many of the strongest, most eloquent "dry" speakers—men like Dr. Matt S. Hughes, of Pasadena. The "drys" stand to gain, not to lose, from the other side being given its hearing; for, let it be remembered, the campaign is being waged, not for the edification of those already won over to the "dry" cause, but to make converts to those who are undecided or who heretofore have been opposed to this cause. Fanaticism will not win these men. Reason will win them. Sound argument will incline them to support the "dry" amendment; but not through suppression, or attempted suppression, of what those opposed to the "dry" amendment contend. Whenever the "drys" attempt to win by stifling a fair hearing to all concerned, they will injure their own cause more than they will promote it. They have much the better of the argument. They may give their opponents a full hearing and yet worst and confound them. The Press verily believes, by weightier, more logical reasoning, by sounder argument, by indisputable economic facts and by the awakening of humane impulses; but so strong is the native American love of the square deal, even though a cause that is weak in argument and illogical in its contentions were denied fair hearing, the result would be to create sympathy for that cause. It is the fundamental rule of jurisprudence to give every man his day in court. The man whose infraction of the law is flagrant and unquestionable still has his right of hearing in defense. So this principle is ingrained in this intelligent, fair-minded people. They believe in giving men and measures a fair hearing; then they may form their verdict upon the merits or demerits of the case.

The "dry" cause has inherent merits, in the opinion of The Press, that should carry it to victory; and it will be the merits of this cause as compared with the opposition cause that will induce thinking men to vote for it. There can be no comparison of merits between causes until both sides are heard. Both sides are being heard throughout the state, and where they are heard, side by side, there is strong reason to believe the "dry" cause is winning supporters on its merits. Place a real diamond and a paste diamond side by side, and the genuine stone easily may be detected; but see but one of them, and none but an expert could tell which is real. Put the "dry" and the "wet" contentions before the people, side by side, and the intelligent, thinking masses easily can detect which is the genuine-diamond argument and which the paste-diamond. Let's fight for California "dry" with our eyes open. The fight can be won only through intelligence, reason and judgment based upon known facts and a comparison of the opposing contentions.

No temperance orator can be justly criticised for inviting to platform debate the advocate of the contrary cause; no more should temperance people fear to read in public print the opposing arguments which they invite from the rostrum. A cause that is just will stand out the more prominently and unanswerably in its justice for the very contrast that is offered in exploited attack upon it.

Every temperance fight waged in Long Beach for four years has been won. In every such contest The Press has battled upon the temperance side. Victory has in none of these contests been won by suppression of anti-temperance arguments; it has been won by publishing them and meeting them, fairly, temperately, unafraid. How many citizens of Long Beach knew just where the immortal Lincoln stood upon the question of temperance before California dry opponents foisted the claim that the great emancipator favored the use of alcohol? Scores here now know that Father Abraham was a man of temperance, in thought and habit, scores who knew it not before that very issue was raised by foes to California dry.

TALBERT IS SHOWING OIL CLOTH MADE IN FACTORY NEAR BEACH

T. B. Talbert of Huntington Beach was here yesterday with a small roll of oil cloth made in the Pacific Coast Linoleum and Oil Cloth Company plant at Huntington Beach. Careful examination by a number of people here brought out a unanimous expression of opinion that the oil cloth is just as good as can be made. The surfacing does not crack, and the cloth shows every indication of being A-No. 1 stuff. Talbert stated that dealers who have examined the product of the factory are highly pleased with it, and he feels certain that the plant will sell its product on the coast with ease.

Commercial
The first car of rice from this year's California crop has arrived in Los Angeles, and was sold prior to arrival at a little better than $5 per sack.

The other grain crop of California shows firmness in all branches. Wheat has gradually been advancing in the east, and this has created a very firm feeling in the flour market, and may result in a rise at any time. Heavy exportation of wheat to European countries is partly responsible for the increasing quotations. The only exception to the general market in cereals is corn, which declined a few days ago.

Receipts of eggs yesterday were 240 cases, the heaviest arrival for one day of local eggs in several weeks. The output is increasing very slowly, and prices were unchanged. Butter declined, the first recorded change in the market for nearly three weeks. This was due to an extra market throughout the state.

LARGE SAVINGS ARE MADE BY THE JOHNSON ADMINISTRATION

Graft and Extravagance Eliminated From State—All Supplies Bought by Competitive Bidding—Surplus of $3,800,000 Accumulated—Increase of Expenditures Less Than Any Former Administration.

By C. K. McCLATCHY, JR.

No government, no matter how good its reforms is satisfactory unless conducted with economy. A bewildering maze of figures have been published by reactionary newspapers trying to prove that the administration of Governor Hiram W. Johnson has been extravagant and costly. The question is easily settled if the figures be fairly and accurately presented.

Dollar for Dollar
Hiram W. Johnson became Governor with the idea that a dollar of State money should purchase as much for the State as for an individual buyer. With that idea, he appointed a State Board of Control with plenary power to supervise and regulate all State expenditures.

Finances Topsy-Turvy
The financial affairs of the State were found all topsy-turvy. Two hundred million dollars of State money had been expended in twenty years without an audit and few scraps of paper to show where it had ever gone. Heads of various institutions purchased supplies without competitive bidding. At several institutions there was actual stealing from the State. Everywhere was a looseness and lack of system that would have driven a private business on the rocks in a few years.

State Badly Gouged
The State Printing Office furnished a concrete example. The campaign expenses of the State Printer were paid by four business firms, who in turn were given a monopoly of all the business. One order of text-book paper furnished by one of these firms cost $62,000. The Board of Control refused to accept it, with the result that paper of the very same quality was bought under competitive bidding for $21,000 less. Ink for which the State before 1911 paid $.50 a pound is now being bought for thirty cents a pound. These and various other irregularities brought about the resignation of the State Printer. An efficient system was inaugurated which reduced the average cost of text-books forty-two per cent. The Text-Book Fund, which had been mortgaged $65,000, within a year showed a balance of $162,000.

At the Napa State Hospital the Medical Superintendent had to return money on illegal hay purchases. Though he had built himself a twenty-two room house and a bungalow on the shore of the hospital reservoir, the patients' rooms and dormitories were in filthy condition. Good food was on his table, but the patients were forced to eat food far below the standard for which the State was paying. A foreman plumber admitted padding the payroll and several attendants confessed peonage in working patients on private jobs.

State Buys Own Butter
At Folsom Prison cream from the State cows made into butter by the State convicts was sold to the State at market prices. The Board of Examiners of Optometry were collecting three days' pay for one day's meeting. The secretary of the Board of Medical Examiners had taken $1300 of the State's money.

Competitive Bidding Started
The establishment of a competitive system of bidding upon accurately drawn specifications was one of the first works of the Board of Control. Where before purchases by the State were treated as political patronage they are now treated as business, the lowest bidder receiving the award. In purchasing supplies for the State Printing the decrease in cost averaged over fifty per cent.

All Supplies Tested
To insure delivery of the grade called for all articles are tested. The laboratories at Berkeley test the qualities of goods, while those of the State Engineering Department test the quality of the oils and other materials purchased by the state.

State Obtains Discounts
Before any purchases are allowed, the heads of institutions must furnish to the Board of Control an estimate which is pre-audited, those things unnecessary being pruned off. The time of payment of claims against the State has been cut down from approximately forty-five days to fifteen days, thus saving to the State thousands of dollars in discounts.

These and other savings of the Board have resulted in an annual saving to the State of $1,500,000, and it costs the State of California exactly $46,000 a year to run the Board of Control.

Receives $250,000 Interest
Another mark of efficiency in the state government is the disposition of State funds. The State of California instead of allowing its money to lie idle in the vaults, loans it at interest. This year there was out an average balance of $10,000,000, upon which the State obtained an average of two and one-half per cent interest, or $250,000 yearly.

Economy and efficiency do not depend entirely upon the amount spent; but upon what is received for that spent. Today for every dollar expended the State is receiving full value. Where formerly appropriations were squandered through inefficiency, now every cent's worth is returned to the State.

Criticisms Are Generalities
In not one of the criticisms of State Administration directed against the State Administration is there a particular instance cited. Not one of the many bitter opponents of Governor Johnson can point his finger and say, "There you have paid more for supplies than they are worth; there an official is diverting money into private sources; there the money of California is being wasted on projects for which there will be no return."

None of these can be or are said. The whole criticism is confined to the generalities that more money has been expended during the Johnson Administration than during the Gillett regime. Which the worst noodlehead should know. More money was spent during Johnson's administration than during Gillett's just as more money was spent during Gillett's than during Pardee's, and more during Pardee's than during Gage's.

Expenses Naturally Increase
With the State increased in population, thereby increasing the number of inmates of the prisons and hospitals, involving more business in every department, necessarily the expenses are greater. The average increase of appropriations biennially under the governors preceding Johnson was 20.7. The increase of appropriations under Governor Johnson during his entire term is only 15.6.

State Charges Larger
The population of the State hospitals increased from 7557 in 1910 to 10,112 in 1914, but the per capita cost decreased from $213.90 per patient to $190.02. This annual saving represented $241,474.56, and the patients were better fed, clothed and housed.

Put Surplus in Treasury
Nor do these critics state that when the Governor entered office there was a constructive deficit of several hundred thousand dollars, while today there is a surplus in the state treasury of $3,800,000, with which to cover any possible unforeseen expenditures caused by the passage of any initiative measures.

And of the increase of appropriations over the preceding administrations, a smaller percentage of increase than in the history of the State, most of it went to the completion of projects voted by the people for ones not suffered by former administrations.

Is This Extravagance?
One of these costs is $187,000 yearly for the Railroad Commission, whose decisions have saved the people $6,000,000. Is that extravagant?

Another is $46,000 for the Board of Control, whose decisions save $1,599,000 yearly. Is that extravagant?

Another is $133,500 for the Industrial Accident Commission, through which the injured workmen of the State receive compensation. Is that extravagant?

Is $70,000 yearly extravagant for the Civil Service Commission, which has eliminated politics from the State employment?

Many Unusual Expenses
Governor Johnson furnished free text-books to the pupils of the State, necessitating an appropriation of $500,000. The Fresno Normal School building cost $215,000; improvements of the University of California $457,000; College of Agriculture $1,000,000; an increase of $200,000; river control work on the Sacramento and San Joaquin $225,000; modernizing the State Library $100,000; new Hospital for the Insane $250,000; Girls' Training School for Wayward Girls $200,000; San Diego Exposition $200,000; California Reclamation Board $100,000; increase in State Mining Bureau appropriation $45,000.

What one of these appropriations that no other administration had to carry would those claiming extravagance eliminate? Would they halt the work of the Railroad Commission, the Board of Control or stop the erection of necessary hospitals and schools?

Still Saved Money
Those increases which no other administration had to stand total approximately $4,000,000, so Governor Johnson, despite the great increase in population of the State, was able to spend $4,000,000 upon projects no other governor had to face, but $3,800,000 of surplus in the treasury and still has only 15.6 per cent increase of appropriations over former administrations, while all other governors averaged 20.7 per cent increase over those before them.

Every dollar spent under the Johnson administration represents today a dollar's worth of necessary and beneficial work.

Particularize Extravagance
Let those accusing extravagance definitely state where a dollar has been lost through graft or corruption, where a dollar has been squandered in extravagance or where further dollars might reasonably have been saved.

Until such definite statements have been made charges of extravagance are mere bunk.
